

KERENSKY MAY SET UP ANOTHER GOVERNMENT AT MOSCOW

"To refuse to take part in deciding the destiny of the revolution is a sin which history will not pardon. Eldest a delegate from each 25,000 and send them to the reunion."

"THE PETROGRAD WORKMEN AND SOLDIERS' DEPUTIES"

London, in London, says War News.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—The Russian News Agency, which, as reported last night, was organized by the Maximalists, issued the following despatch from Petrograd, dated 1:30 o'clock last evening:

"The day brought certain changes in the general situation in the capital. The Maximalist movement made fresh and fairly appreciable progress, but no disorders have taken place."

"Toward 6 o'clock in the afternoon the Military Revolutionary Committee of the Soldiers' and Workmen's Deputies issued a proclamation stating that Petrograd was in its hands, thanks to the assistance of the garrison, which enabled the coup d'état to be brought about without bloodshed."

"The proclamation declares that the new Government will propose an immediate and just peace, will hand the land to the peasants, and will summon the Constituent Assembly."

"Delegates from the three Cossack regiments gathered here declared they would not obey the Provisional Government and would not march against the Workmen and Soldiers' Deputies, but that they were prepared to maintain public order."

"The Petrograd Council of Soldiers' and Workmen's Deputies held a meeting this afternoon at which M. Trotsky made his declaration that the Government no longer existed and that the Ministers had been arrested and that the preliminary Parliament had been dissolved."

"Nikolai Lenine, who received prolonged cheers, outlined the three problems now before the Russian Democracy: First—Immediate conclusion of the war, for which purpose the new Government must propose an armistice to the belligerents. Second—The handing over of the land to the peasants. Third—Settlement of the economic crisis."

"At the close of the sitting a declaration was read from the representatives of the Democratic Minimalist party of the Soldiers' and Workmen's Deputies, stating that the party disapproved of the coup d'état and withdrew from the Council of Soldiers' and Workmen's Deputies."

It has been indicated for some time that an attempt was to be made by the Maximalists in Petrograd to seize control of the capital. Nov. 2 was the date originally set for an extremist demonstration which was expected by its promoters to result in the taking over of power by this element. A postponement was afterward decided upon.

The Maximalist, or Bolshevik element, comprises the most extreme class of the Russian Revolutionary Socialists. It first sprang into prominence in the early days of the revolution under the leadership of Nikolai Lenine, the Radical agitator, who later was put under ban of the Provisional Government, because of his ultra-radical preachments and his suspected pro-German leanings. Lenine is known to have been in Petrograd for some time past, but a Government order for his arrest failed to result in his apprehension.

Premier Kerensky seemingly recognized that the growing menace to his Government was one that he could not cope with by drastic measures, surrounded as he was by military power in the hands of his opponents. It was only within the last day or two that he refused to declare the Bolshevik virtual outlaws.

DON'T JUDGE RUSSIA BY PETROGRAD NEWS, SAYS HER AMBASSADOR

Has Not Yet Received the Full Story of the Newest Revolution.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 8.—"The intense and spirit of Russia as a whole should in no way be judged by the news from Petrograd," declared Boris A. Bakmeteff, Russian Ambassador to the United States, when shown Associated Press Despatches relative to the reported overthrow of the Russian Provisional Government.

"Until just now I did not have any personal or official information on the subject," said Dr. Bakmeteff. "and therefore you cannot expect any official opinion."

"I can tell you," said the Ambassador, "the spirit prevailing in Petrograd is not representative of the Russian spirit as a whole."

"The extremist element has always been strong in Petrograd, but as to the whole of Russia the news from the provincial and county local bodies is weak. Less than 10 per cent. of these extremists were elected."

WASHINGTON FEARS FALL OF KERENSKY MEANS CIVIL WAR

One Possibility Is He May Set Up a New Government at Moscow.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Kerensky's fall and the collapse of his government is regarded here as threatening Russia with the civil war which all her friends hoped to see avoided.

The State Department, without official advice of its own, was silent, wishing to avoid making any statements until the situation could be accurately assessed on the basis of intimate reports from Ambassador Francis at Petrograd.

The Russian Embassy preferred not to make a statement until later and until after there has been opportunity for communication with Ambassador Bakmeteff, who was travelling in the South.

The embassies of the Entente Allies, realizing that the development means first of all probably a rearrangement of their war plans, were not disheartened at what is considered a triumph of insidious German propaganda.

The general opinion here among those in position to be best informed of Russian affairs is that Kerensky and his followers probably will at once set up a new Government at Moscow, leaving Petrograd to the Maximalists and those troops who adhere to them. An armed clash is counted among the first probabilities, but it is said here that the greater part of the army is expected to remain loyal to the Kerensky Government.

Whether the new revolt will go the quick way of the Korniloff rebellion no one here ventures to predict. The realization is that it is infinitely more serious. The outcome, and Russia's part in the last year of the war, while she recovers her fighting power, no one here assumes to contemplate at this time.

The War Council of the co-belligerents, just about to assemble in Europe to arrange policies of co-ordination of fighting forces, is now faced with a new and great problem at its very outset.

The immediate effect upon the part which the United States must take as the shifting of world events turns the burden of war more and more to the American people cannot be assessed accurately at this time.

The Treaty of Versailles, which already has authorized credits of $25,000,000 to Russia, and of that sum probably half already has been drawn upon for supplies bought in this country.

officials to be in accord with the views I have expressed."

Mr. Schneider also emphasized the necessity of qualification for office that he is regarded as expressing publicly Judge Hylan's attitude. These declarations will strike a note into the hungry hordes of office-seekers already scrambling for jobs.

Chief Murphy did not appear at Tammany Hall to-day and the "broadline" of applicants awaiting him had to go away disappointed. Mr. Murphy leaves to-morrow night for French Lick Springs, Ind., accompanied by his wife and members of his family. The usual bodyguards of Tammany leaders is not to attend.

Charles A. Tamm, the newly-named Comptroller, intends to make more changes in the city's financial policy than to officeholders. Most of the department's employees are under civil service anyway, but for heads of bureaus and persons having to do with financial affairs he intends to make his own choice of men with highest qualifications.

Two important policies are to be changed by the new Comptroller. One is to discontinue, if possible, the pay-as-you-go policy which imposes heavy burdens on taxpayers of the present day and the other is to divorce the relationship between the Finance Department and the bankers of Wall Street in highly profitable interest payments on short time city loans.
